THE FNB COMMUNITY BANK WELCOMES ENLOE AS JR. TRUST OFFICER

The FNB Community Bank recently announced the addition of Delainey Enloe as Jr. Trust Officer.

“We couldn’t be happier to have Lainey on board,” stated Matt Rovenstine, Trust Officer. “Her energy, kindness, and can-do attitude add much to our team. She’s always smiling and eager to go above and beyond to create a “plus one” experience for our clients.”

Enloe is a 2018 graduate from Mulberry Grove High School. She attended Kaskaskia College and graduated in 2023 with her Associate’s degree in Ag Business and Animal Science. After this, she went on to attend Murray State University and graduated in 2025 with a Bachelor’s degree in Ag Business and Agricultural Science with an emphasis in Livestock Production.

“I am truly excited to begin this new chapter and take on challenges that will allow me to grow both personally and professionally,” commented Enloe.

Enloe brings a strong work ethic and a genuine commitment to learning and professional development. Her focus is on providing support, maintaining the highest levels of confidentiality and compliance, and helping clients achieve peace of mind in managing their trust and estate matters. She aims to contribute positively to the team and to FNB’s success while growing her expertise within the bank’s trusted fiduciary services.

Outside of work, you can find Enloe hanging out with her boyfriend, Grant, and their 3 dogs, Max, Piper, and Gizzy. If she is not with them, she’s probably hanging out with friends or family, playing some slow-pitch softball, reading a good book, or rewatching Harry Potter.

Enloe has joined The FNB Community Bank’s Trust Department at the Banker Boulevard branch where she assists in managing client trusts and estates, ensuring accurate administration, compliance, and customer service.

The FNB Community Bank, founded in 1865, has locations in Vandalia, Greenville, Ramsey, Patoka, and Mulberry Grove. Member FDIC.
